

CODICIL

Whereas, I, Sidney Sappington am desirous to change the provisions of my last will and testament, dated on the _____ day of _____, _____, I do hereby make this Codicil thereto.

Whereas I have bequeathed the rest and residue of my property to my children, as named in my said will, I do hereby will that the portion that shall go to my son, William C. Sappington, be held in trust for him by my sons, James Sappington and Sidney St. John Sappington, during his natural life, the interest, thereon to be paid annually to my said son, William C. Sappington, and at his death I will and bequeath the aforesaid portion to the legal child and children of the said William C. Sappington in equal shares, and in case the said William C. Sappington leaves no child or children then I will and bequeath that the aforesaid portion go to my legal heirs.

Whereas I have bequeath to Wesley Rideout my dwelling house and lot on North Street, it being the same property occupied by him, together with the sum of One Hundred dollars, in my said last will, and whereas the said Wesley Rideout has since died, I hereby will and bequeath the said dwelling house and lot to my son, R. Frank Sappington, to Ella May Booser the sum of Fifty dollars, to be held in trust for her by my daughter, Adalaide E. Hammond, and to be paid her, the said Ella May Booser, when she arrives at the age of twenty one years, or day of Marriage, which shall first happen, provided she is at that time in the employ of the said Adelaide E. Hammond, and the remaining sum of Fifty dollars to Clara Jenkins and James Wheden, in equal portions, provided the said Clara Jenkins and James Wheden are in my employ at the time of my decease.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and Seal this eighth day of November, 1897.

Sidney Sappington (SEAL)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Sidney Sappington as and for a Codicil to his said last will and testament, in our presence, who, at his request, in his presence and in presence of each other, have hereto set our hands as witnesses hereto.
